Important information about your BMO credit card account

Interest charges and calculation: The interest rates we charge are shown on your account statement and card carrier. For information on how we calculate interest charges, refer to your BMO Cardholder Agreement (the "agreement") available at bmo.com/cha

Interest-free grace period: If you pay your balance due in full (or your total balance for customers with interest-bearing installment plans) by the payment due date, any purchases, installment plans (for customers with interest-bearing installment plans) and fees appearing on your account statement for the first time will have an interest-free grace period of at least 21 days. Otherwise, we will charge interest retroactively from the date of each purchase, installment plan conversion (for customers with interest-bearing installment plans) or fee until the date we receive payment in full. There is no interest-free grace period on balance transfers, or cash advances, including cash-like transactions and gaming transactions. If you do not pay your balance due in full, your grace period will increase to at least 25 days on your next monthly statement. Your grace period will return to at least 21 days once you pay your balance due in full by the next payment due date.

Your minimum payment if you reside outside Quebec:

Your minimum payment will be $10.00 plus any interest plus any fees (excluding installment plan interest and fees) plus any total monthly installment plan payments plus the greater of the following: (i) any amount past due on your account statement; or (ii) any amount by which your total balance exceeds your credit limit. If your balance due is $10.00 or less, you must pay the full amount.
